United Nations A/53/916

General Assembly

Distr.: General
19 April 1999
English
Original: French

Fifty-third session
Agenda item 110 (b)
Human rights questions: human rights questions, including alternative approaches for improving the effective enjoyment of human rights and fundamental freedoms

Letter dated 19 April 1999 from the Permanent Representative of Cambodia to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General*

I have the honour to bring to your attention the statement issued on 18 April 1999 by the Cabinet of the Prime Minister of the Royal Government of Cambodia concerning the Government's position on the issue of the trial of Khmer Rouge leaders, as set forth by Samdech Hun Sen, Prime Minister of the Royal Government of Cambodia, during his meeting with Mr. John Kerry, a United States Senator, on 6 April 1999 (see annex).

I should be grateful if you would have this letter and its annex circulated as a document of the General Assembly, under agenda item 110 (b).

(Signed) Ouch Borith
Ambassador
Permanent Representative

* Also circulated as document S/1999/443.

99-11226 (E) 200499 200499

Annex

[Original: English]

Statement made on 18 April 1999 by the Cabinet of Samdech Hun Sen, Prime Minister of the Royal Government of Cambodia

In the meeting with the United States Senator John Kerry on 6 April 1999, while touching upon the issue of the trial of Khmer Rouge leaders, Samdech Hun Sen affirmed to Senator Kerry the following information:

1. To meet international standards, the trial of Ta Mok, the Khmer Rouge leader, would be conducted by the existing national court with the assistance of foreign countries, in which foreign judges and prosecutors would be allowed to take part. Cambodia would enact additional pieces of legislation in order to allow foreign judges and prosecutors to participate in the domestic trial.

2. The indictment and prosecution of other Khmer Rouge leaders are the sole competence of the court. The Royal Government is not entitled to give orders to the judicial branch to do this or that.

Upon receiving these assurances from Samdech Prime Minister Hun Sen, Senator John Kerry welcomed the positive position of the Cambodian Prime Minister.